Pastor Joe Dickinson

Dear Pastor and Church,

Friend Day

Since my last letter, I had the privilege to preach a friend day in Metzingen at the Unabhängige Baptisten Gemeinde (Independent Baptist Church). In preparation for this event, I was able to preach a series in Metzingen during their Wednesday night services. Since the mid-week services here in Ingolstadt are on Thursdays, I was able to travel to Metzingen on Wednesdays to preach a "Being a Friend" series for three weeks leading up to Friend Day.

On Friend Day, I was the special speaker for both the morning and evening services. After preaching the second service that Sunday, I was able to talk to a couple, and by the grace of God, got to lead them to the Lord. My father had been witnessing to this couple for over two years. He was also the one who brought Saskia and Andreas to the Friend Day I am so glad and excited that they were saved on that day.

Christmas Services

The women in the church did a great job decorating the auditorium and preparing traditional German cookies and pastries. We took a church outing to a city called Regensburg (about an hour away from Ingolstadt) to visit and enjoy the well-known Christmas market Turn & Taxis. On Christmas Eve we held a candle light service. Five visitors attended this service and I preached on "The Love of God." Please pray that these visitors will soon accept the Lord as their Savior.

TACO FEAST

In a few weeks we have planned to have a taco feast at the church combined with a game night. Snow blankets the earth here and freezing temperatures are the norm at this time, so we thought we would warm things up with some good old Tex-Mex spicy food and some hot preaching. Everyone in the church is excited about this upcoming event, please pray that we will be able to bring a lot of lost people to this outreach event to hear the gospel for the first time.

Because of Christ,
